Holiday Homework

100 POINTS

You are going to give a short concert of music you know for family or friends. Here are the steps you should take. Note: This is different than the concert at school. This is a concert you give at home for family and or friends.

1. Practice ☺
2. Decide on a time and place to play your songs.
3. Invite a brother, sister, cousin or other family member to play a song or two also. If they can play along with you, even better.
4. Make sure you have your music and a music stand.
5. Check your tuning without breaking a string!
6. Smile when you are in front of your audience. They are happy to be there. This performance is not about being perfect or being judged, it's about sharing your music.
7. After you are done performing, please take a bow.

For credit, please fill in the following information:

I played my concert on this date:

The people who listened to me included:

List anyone who played on the concert with you and their instrument:

I played these songs for everyone:

Write at least two complete sentences about how you liked giving a concert like this and anything you learned from the experience.